Greetings . . .

Here we are again, carrying on with the Torch.

We hope you will like our efforts.

JOHN FEYAS,

Editor-in-Chief.

A New View of Our School

Peace

*Some have found it in a garden, some have found it on a stream,
For the peace of true contentment is the depth of every dream;
Some have found it on the hilltops, and the search is ages old
But no man has ever found it in a selfish strife for gold.*

*Oh, 'tis plain what men are after as they scramble with the throng,
'Tis the hope of every toiler thru the weary days and long,
'Tis the hope of every sailor standing duty far at sea;
The peace which follows labor in the days that are to be.*

*There are countless ways to win it, some have found it in a child,
Some have come to it through sorrow, when their hearts were reconciled,
But whichever way you wander and whichever choice you make
You must leave a touch of beauty for the happiness you take.*

*You will never rest contented if you save yourself alone,
From your comrades, from your neighbors comes the peace that you would own,
It is born of love and friendship, in a thousand ways 'tis told,
But no man has ever found it in a selfish strife for gold.*

—SHIRLEY FLEMING.

DEDICATION

HARRY E. ANDERSEN

Dedication . . .

We, the members of the graduating Class of 1942, dedicate the Torch as an everlasting tribute to

HARRY E. ANDERSEN

as a gesture of appreciation to him for his contribution of guidance, energy and ability to help us face the present crisis.

Guess Who?

Secretive Waters

*When twilight fades and evening comes
And the moon shines on the sea,
I like to stop and gaze awhile
At the waves that pass in majesty.*

*They bring me memories of the past,
The days when I was young and gay;
But Alas! I can only reminisce
For my love has died away.*

*Although I'm old, and feeble, and bent,
And my once dark hair is gray,
I see those days so vividly—
They seem to have happened just yesterday.*

*Each night we'd walk the sandy shores,
Each night I'd hold her hand;
Each night I'd whisper tender words,
Each night I'd be in fairy-land.*

*The words we spoke were only heard
By the moon, the sea, the stars above.
And every wave that rolled ashore
Seemed to say, "They are in love."*

*Now as I tread the same old shores—
The same old waves come up to me;
They know my plight, but they won't tell.
They keep our vows in secrecy.*

The Lonely Bard

*I like to roam the rocky hills—
Out near the great divide,
They are my private rocks and rills,
My only joy and pride.*

*Two hands all calloused brown and hard,
I build my life anew.
For I am just a lonely bard,
My friends are far and few.*

*And though I am not worldly wise,
My life is full of thrills,
I am happy in my paradise,
Of craggy rocks and hills.*

"Make Your Own"

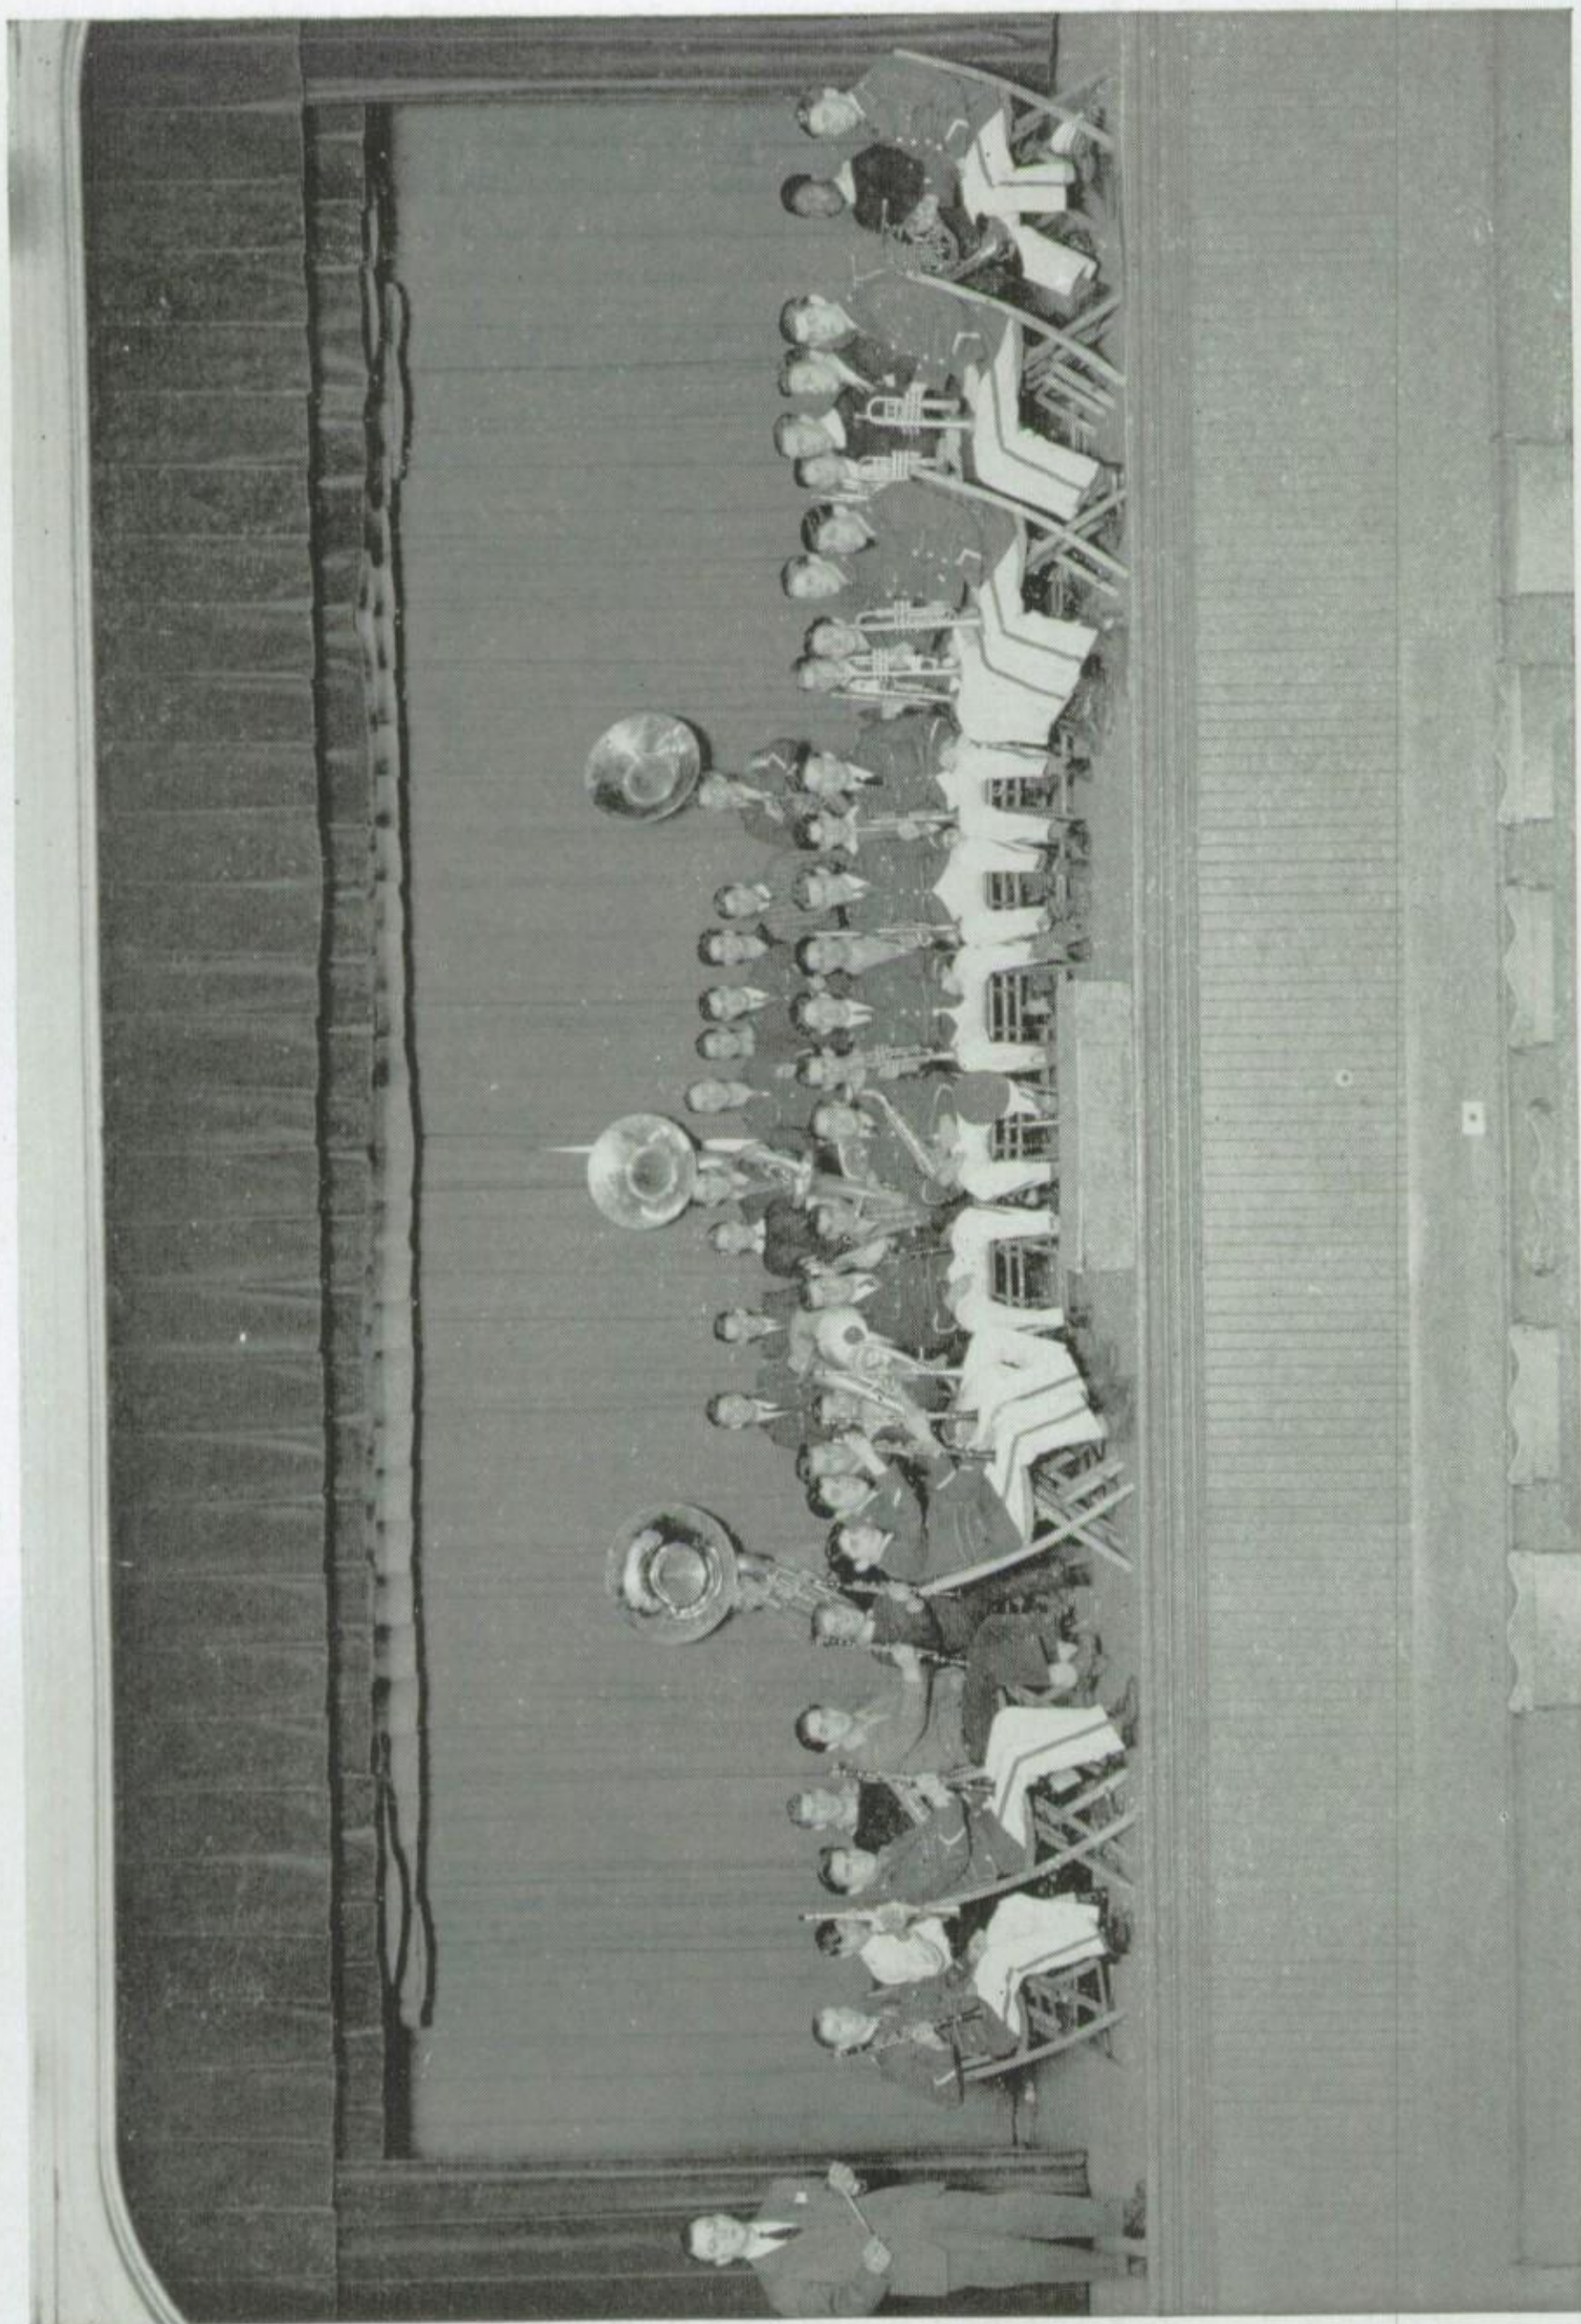

*Erie Tech High is the best in the land.
Yes, the very best, to be sure.
You'll raise to heights by lending a hand,
There will be no machine you can't cure.*

*Just ask Mr. Checkan, the guy with the brains.
He'll say you'll make the grade.
Come to school no matter if it snows, shines or rains,
And study hard—you'll learn the trade.*

*So when you're all through school,
And you're out on your own—
Don't think the world owes you a living,
For you'll have to make your own.*

"Yes, your own!"

—WILLIAM T. DiLORETO.
